Weekly Hot Topics

- Turn in all paperwork and fill out Grades First reports immediately after each session. It is an ACSA policy, per your employment contract, as well as a human resource requirement (i.e. you will, unfortunately, not get paid if it is not done correctly).

- The ACSA’s new rules for students also apply to tutors. Please set a good example!
  * No food
  * No Facebook
  * No cell phone use except in the hallways
  * Low voices, especially in library and tutorial areas
  * No hats

- Remember to check in at the front desk before every session.

- The ACSA will be closed February 14—16 for Mardi Gras. It will reopen Wednesday, February 17th at 12:30 PM. If you will be out-of-town Wednesday, please reschedule and notify the front desk.

- Be sure to check your students’ schedules for travel/exams conflicts and have them email their professors to reschedule. Please note in reports.

- If you need textbooks for your sessions, check with SLP. They have many and can order others.

Feedback

“Alexander is a kinesiology major, while Fico is majoring in elementary education. Garrett and Ludwig are members of the University College Center for Freshman Year (UCFY). The UCFY is an academic unit to help freshmen define their academic and career goals. Sport administration is Logan’s major, while Shepard is majoring in mass communication.

For putting forth extra effort in the classroom and community in addition to their rigorous academic and competition schedules, these six student-athletes will have their pictures displayed on the wall in the CCACSA.”

Tutoring Tip of the Week

Graphic Organizers

Graphic organizers are a great way to help visuals learners, give students a way to process and organize information, and create something that they can take away from the sessions and use to study later. A few graphic organizer templates can be found behind the tutorial desk.
