

Mike Mallet

Position: Director, Shaquille O'Neal
CHAMPS/Life Skills Program

Office: 107A Gym Armory

O Phone: (225) 578-4730

E-Mail: mmallet [at] lsu.edu

Mike Mallet has worked in the LSU Athletic Department for the last 19 years. He is entering in his third year as the Director of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Program at LSU. Mike provides leadership for a comprehensive life skills program dedicated to improving the welfare of and assisting the personal development of student-athletes. Mike also serves as an administrative team member of the Academic Center for Student-Athletes.

Work History:

- Assistant to Athletic Director, LSU Academic Center
- Special Assistant to Athletic Director, Louisiana State University
- Director of Marketing and Promotions, LSU Athletics
- Drug Testing Supervisor, Louisiana State University
- Assistant Principle, Discipline/Special Programs, Leesville High School
- Teacher/Head Basketball Coach, Leesville High School
- Head Freshman Football Coach & Assistant Varsity Football Coach, Leesville High School

Education:

- Master's in Education, McNeese State University
- Certificate in Health and Physical Education, McNeese State University
- Bachelor's of Science, Recreation, Grambling State University

Personal:

Mike is originally from Leesville, LA, and now resides in Baton Rouge, LA, with his wife Jacqueline. The two have one son, Derrick.